

The spirit of discovery runs deep in Nevada. Whether it's our miles of wide-open spaces or something a little more communal like Burning Man, Nevada is filled with a variety of activities and characters that will satisfy the explorer inside you.

From the desert oasis of Las Vegas in the south, up and over the mountain rises and sagebrush-covered valleys of the north/central region, to the adventure-packed northwest, unlimited experiences await for you to discover, explore and conquer.

Nevada speaks to weekend wanderers and long-haul ponderers, guardians of tradition and buckers of trends. Nevada offers two great international airports, the Las Vegas – Harry Reid International Airport and Reno – Tahoe International Airport. Northern Nevada is in close proximity to San Francisco, only a 4-hour drive, creating a great airport hub for fly-and-drive itineraries. Open your Southern Nevada itinerary into a Neon to Nature experience, filled with art, National/state parks, and even haunted hotels like the Mizpah in Tonopah.

We're excited to welcome you to our incredible Silver State.

ITINERARIES

Whether you're a foodie, a history buff, an adventure junkie, or an old soul looking for some quiet, your next favorite vacation awaits on a Silver State road trip.

BURNER BYWAY

110 to 250 miles | 2 to 4 days

This trip starts in the Biggest Little City and follows the same route tens of thousands take each year to the Black Rock Desert and Burning Man. With a night at spellbinding Pyramid Lake and a visit to some of the West's most pristine desert, this road is all about unscripted adventure.

DEATH VALLEY RALLY

Up to 370 miles | 3 to 4 days

A land of extremes awaits just off The Strip. While diving into the state's southwest, you'll enjoy below-sea-level adventure in Death Valley, stargaze at an alpine resort, wander a ghost town, and tour a Mojave Desert winery.

COWBOY CORRIDOR

400 miles | 2 to 4 days

Nevada's Interstate 80 may be what some motorists blast down on their way to somewhere else, but that's their loss! On this trip, you'll discover lively communities that celebrate the confluence of buckaroo, Basque, and American Indian traditions. Along the way, enjoy plenty of museums, galleries, and some of the state's best small-town cuisine.

NEVADA

FREE-RANGE ART HIGHWAY

440 to 515 miles | 1 to 3 days

Psychedelic free-range art meets the American West on this 500-mile trek from Las Vegas to Reno. While motoring between the state's two major metro areas, you'll meet mural-draped downtowns, oddball open-air galleries, funky shops, and iconic overnights.

EXTRATERRESTRIAL HIGHWAY

100 to 470 miles | 2 days

This road trip will see you rocketing off to one of Nevada's most remote and mysterious corridors. Along the way, you'll see one of the deepest craters in the U.S., hunt for UFOs just miles outside Area 51, stay in a clown-themed motel, and score some alien swag.

GREAT BASIN HIGHWAY

350 to 585 miles | 3 to 5 days

This trip begins with sandstone canyons and ends at ancient bristlecone pines beneath some of the nation's darkest skies. Before reaching our state's very own national park, you'll explore surreal landscapes at Valley of Fire and Cathedral Gorge, walk down a few historic main streets, and visit a handful of well-preserved ghost towns.
