

Francisco Campos

Francisco Campos was born and raised in Chicago, IL but has called Los Angeles, CA home for the last 12 years. He received a B.A. in Political Science and French from Whittier College in 2016 where he was also a Coordinator in the Office of International Programs. Before starting his career in travel and tourism, he traveled extensively throughout North America, Asia, Africa, and Europe, including two years studying, working, and living in France. He is currently a Travel Experiences Developer with The Travel Corporation (TTC) creating unique itineraries and travel experiences for guests touring in the Americas with Trafalgar, CostSaver, Insight Vacation, and Luxury Gold. When he is not developing itineraries for TTC, he is planning his own next vacation somewhere around the world.
