

Joni Seay

I am a 22-year veteran of the National Park Service. 17 of those years have been spent working with commercial operators within our National Parks. I have worked at Glen Canyon National Recreation Area, Glacier Bay National Park & Preserve and am currently working in the Alaska Regional Office. I strive to ensure that our visitors are provided quality, diverse and unique services within our National Parks through concessions contracts, commercial use authorizations and leases.