

HOW TO SELL YOUR PRODUCT TO TOUR OPERATORS AND MAXIMIZE YOUR TIME AT Go WEST SUMMIT

5 Minute Networking Session

- Fast-paced, five-minute networking sessions right after lunch on day 2 of Marketplace.
- This is for networking only, not a full appointment.
- Take advantage of this chance to network and visit tour operators that you do not have pre-scheduled appointments with.
- You are only allowed five minutes with each tour operator. There will be others that need to see the same tour operators.

Getting the most out of the Marketplace Appointments

- Appointments are 12 minutes, so pace the meeting accordingly.
- Do not overstay your appointment time...someone else is waiting!
- Know what type of product the tour operator sells before the appointment.
- Ask the right questions to determine what their true needs are, then LISTEN!
- If there appears to be a match, discuss only your products which fit their needs. If there is no match, thank them and move on.
- You may need to sell your state first, then your destination, then the property or attraction.
- Be able to effectively express what your destination has to offer.
- Be enthusiastic.
- Take notes on the conversation.
- Together, determine what the next step is.
- Keep track of all verbal sales commitments and confirm them in writing immediately afterwards.
- At the end of the business meeting, summarize all points discussed.

Work the social functions

- Use every social occasion as a business opportunity. This is an excellent opportunity to meet with tour operators with whom you did not get an appointment.
- Bring your business cards.
- Create your target list ahead of time.
- Keep it informal... don't oversell.
- Invite tour operator(s) to join you at a meal function.
- Tuesday's "Evening on Your Own" is a perfect opportunity to invite tour operators to dinner. Visit the host city's booth for restaurant suggestions.
- Sign up for Adventure Day. It's a great way to meet tour operators and other suppliers.

Evaluations

- Give us feedback that will make this summit more beneficial to you.
- Evaluations forms will be emailed to you after the event.
